SLUMP AT PALMETTO PARK

PATRONAGE FALLS OFF AS RESULT OF UN-FAVORABLE CLIMATIC CONDITIONS.

Foul Is Claimed After Spellbound Beats Colone Cook a Nose, but Stewards Refuse to Change Placing-Ring Reduced to Six Books.

Charleston, S. C., March 19.—Continued adverse weather this afternoon caused a diminished interest in the racing at Palmetto Park and a decreased attendance. The volume of betting has fallen of woefully during the past few days and to save needless expense two of the books were today discontinued, the remaining six being ample to handle the wagers offered. According to report, the layers have lost over $20,000, including operating expenses, during the past five days. At times a panicky attitude is displayed. The absence of Tom Shaw is decidedly noticeable, for it leaves the ring without a strong leader. There is also a disposition on the part of the layers to "tighten" the prices, particularly about those with good winning chances.

The principal happening of the afternoon in a racing way came with the running of the fourth race, won by Spellbound over Colonei Cook, the heavily backed favorite. The erratic behavior of Hoffman at the post brought about the worst start that James Milton has achieved during the meeting. Colonel Cook was the principal beneficiary, but Mondon allowed him to be immediately displaced from the lead by Spellbound. The latter showed an inclination to bear out after going half a mile, and Mondon, though having Colonel Cook well in hand, continued to stay on the outside of Spellbound. In the stretch drive, the latter continued to bear to the outer rail and carried Colonel Cook with him. Mondon tried desperately to pass Spellbound, but Skirvin was equally alert in efforts to prevent it and in the last furlong struck Colonel Cook with him. Mondon tried desperately to the continued to bear to the outer rail and carried Colonel Cook with him. A NEW CANADIAN OWNER.

Toronto, Ont., March 19.—With the opening of the Canadian racing season at Woodbine May 24, William Fitch of Hamilton will break into the ranks as an owner. He purchased three high class two-year-olds from J. E. Madden at Lexington, Ky., recently, two of which are chestnut fillies, by Star Shoot and Planudes, and the third a colt by Cesarion. The price paid for the fillies was $2,000 each and $2,500 for the colt. The latter is a promising youngster, and showed a quarter in 23% as a yearling last fall. They will not be raced in Kentucky, but will be shipped to Woodbine Park about May 8. Another prominent Hamiltonian who wishes his name withheld temporarily, is also interested in the venture.

NOIES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Buxton is reported to have received an offer to ride for the Schorr stable in Kentucky.

Senor Jaime Todd, representing the Venezulea government, has arrived at Charleston from Caraca to purchase some thoroughbreds for export.

Henry Stull, a well known painter of the thoroughbred, died Tuesday at his residence in New Rochelle, N. Y. He had been ill for eighteen monthelle leaves a wife but no children. He was born a Hamilton, Ont., about sixty years ago. His mother and brother William reside at Hamilton,

JUAREZ RACING IS FORMFUL.

Five Favorites Among Day's Winners at Mexican Course-Purse for Chapultepec.

Course—Purse for Chapultepec.

El Paso, Tex., March 19.—Another large crowd visited the Juarez track today and was rewarded by good racing. The results were exceptionally formful. Five favorites scored and the bookmakers suffered heavy losses on the day's transactions.

Aunt Manne won the juvenile race in a drive with Theodorita and Barbara Lane. Toy Boy, from the stable of J. W. Fuller, made every post a winning one in the third.

In the feature race Chapultepec was favored when Winning Witch dashed to the outer fence on the farturn. Estep stayed close to the rail with his mount and obtained an advantage at that point that his opposition could not overcome. Wintergreen ruled favorite on the strength of fast morning trials, but was not a serious contender at any stage of the running.

Phil Hyams' Mary Ann K., starting for the first time at this meeting, got up in the last skride to beat Nello a nose in the fifth race. It was a stirring struggle throughout the last sixteenth.

Blarney raced in the colors of his new owner, H. T. Batcheler, but failed to run up to the smart race he showed in opposition to Old Rosebud.

Mary Ann K. was bid up from $300 to $800 by W. St. Vincent, but was bought in by owner Hyams. Mr. Hyams retaliated by claiming Nello.

Mars Cassidy was unable to send the fields away today, having been stricken with a heavy cold and James Osborne, one of his assistants, ably filled the place.

Horsemen are now commencing to ship to various points. The advance guard for Cocur d'Alenc left yesterday. Among those shipped were the strings of J. Emensetter, F. Rinehart and N. K. Moody.

Henry McDaniel shipped his string of ten to the Cocur d'Alenc left yesterday. Among those shipped were the strings of J. Emensetter, F. Rinehart and N. K. Moody.

TRAINING GOSSIP FROM NORFOLK.

Norfolk, Va., March 19.—The veteran trainer, Theodore F. Coles, gave Hunter G. Breckenridge's good-looking Roehampton two-year-olds, a trial at the Jamestown Jockey Club's track a day or two ago while the going was a trifle cuppy and both made excellent showings. The filly, which is trailing more readily than the colt, worked three-eighths of a mile in C. 25, which as a excellent going the last of the collection of the collection of the collection of the filly can outwork the colt just now, trainer Coles prefers the colt. The action of Yoderling, he says, is as smooth and free as that of any horse he ever trained. He likes Yoderling indeed as well as he used to like Stinger, the good Voter racer he handled a couple of seasons ago for C. C. Swill of the William Shields, referring to the Roehampton colt. "is going to make a first-class race horse or I am no judge of two-year-olds. He has size and reach and action and he handles himself well at the barrier. He would be farther along if he had been broken and trained a bit last fall, but he is good enough as he stands to beat good ones this spring."

Mr. Breckenridge will put thy Yoderling and the Mr. Breckenridge will put thy Yoderling and the Juvenile is run.

Rosco Troxher arrived from Charleston to take up the riding of Harry Payne Whitney's two-year-olds. Troxler is now under regular contract with the Whitney stable and will do all of Albert Simon's heavyweight riding. He can make 108 or 109 pounds, Jockey John Mr. Shrook, will do the lightweight riding.

Hugh Penny, who has already begun the education of Johnny McTaggart, a younger brother of the McTaggart who rode the better part of last season for August Belmont, says he will have no two-year-olds this season of Puryear D. are in tip-top condition, but the old campaigner had a setbere in the form of a spell of sickness six weeks ago and has had no training from at Pimileo.
